

CHAired PROFESSORSHIP
UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

The University of Pennsylvania invites applications and nominations for a tenured faculty member to hold the Boettner Chair in Financial Gerontology. The candidate must have demonstrated significant scholarly achievement in analyzing relationships between the economic well-being of the elderly, and their social, psychological, physical, and/or environmental well-being. It is anticipated that the faculty member would carry out research pertinent to economic security and the quality of life in an aging society. The Chair will reside in the School of Arts and Sciences, the School of Social Work, the Wharton School, or another school in the University as appropriate.

Review of applications will begin January 15, 2003 and continue until the position is filled.
